General & Revenue departments.

Sir.

Adverting to G.O. Nos. 13089-9.
R.F. 61-92
of the 17th May 1899, sanctioning the grant of a loan of Rs 2,500/- to the Tarikere municipality for the construction of a Weekly market and to the levy of fees tentatively for a period of 6 months, I have the honor to state that the market was constructed at a total cost of Rs 2753/- and was opened from 1st November/00, was leased out at Rs 65/- fees mensem as reported in my office letter no. 49 of the 20th July/01.

2. The Municipal Board of Tarikere have, in their meeting of the 20th April 1901, resolved to obtain the sanction of Government to continue the levy of fees at the rates already sanctioned till the End of December/01, as owing to the prevelance of Plague and cholera in the Surrounding.

Surroundings, necessitated the Board to depart from the rates of fees of Sandemarahalli market in the Chamarajanagar Taluk of the Mysore District being introduced.

3. Under these circumstances I beg to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to continue the levy of fees as urged by the Board.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,
